

Supporting Document 6. COVID-19: Information and Guidance

COVID-19 Symptom Checker

These are some of the known symptoms associated with COVID-19 the disease caused by the coronavirus. It is a new virus and information is still being collected about how this affects people. The clinical definition of symptoms currently used by the NHS are shown in RED. Older people or people with other health conditions may have different (atypical) symptoms as described here.

Temperature of 37.8° C or more

A new continuous cough

Shortness of Breath

Fatigue

Aching muscles

Sore throat

Diarrhoea.

New onset or worsening confusion

Sneezing

Runny Nose

Loss of Taste and Smell

Headache